Summary of Record of Interview Requirements

Manual of Patent Examining Procedure (MPEP), Section 713.04, Substance of Interview Must be Made of Record

A complete written statement as to the substance of any face-to-face, video conference, or telephone interview with regard to an application must be made of record in the application whether or not an agreement with the examiner was reached at the interview.

Title 37 Code of Federal Regulations (CFR) § 1.133 Interviews

Paragraph (b)

In every instance where reconsideration is requested in view of an interview with an examiner, a complete written statement of the reasons presented at the interview as warranting favorable action must be filed by the applicant. An interview does not remove the necessity for reply to Office action as specified in §§ 1.111, 1.135. (35 U.S.C. 132)

37 CFR §1.2 Business to be transacted in writing.

All business with the Patent or Trademark Office should be transacted in writing. The personal attendance of applicants or their attorneys or agents at the Patent and Trademark Office is unnecessary. The action of the Patent and Trademark Office will be based exclusively on the written record in the Office. No attention will be paid to any alleged oral promise, stipulation, or understanding in relation to which there is disagreement or doubt.

The action of the Patent and Trademark Office cannot be based exclusively on the written record in the Office if that record is itself incomplete through the failure to record the substance of interviews.

It is the responsibility of the applicant or the attorney or agent to make the substance of an interview of record in the application file, unless the examiner indicates he or she will do so. It is the examiner's responsibility to see that such a record is made and to correct material inaccuracies which bear directly on the question of patentability.

Examiners must complete an Interview Summary Form for each interview held where a matter of substance has been discussed during the interview by checking the appropriate boxes and filling in the blanks. Discussions regarding only procedural matters, directed solely to restriction requirements for which interview recordation is otherwise provided for in Section 812.01 of the Manual of Patent Examining Procedure, or pointing out typographical errors or unreadable script in Office actions or the like, are excluded from the interview recordation procedures below. Where the substance of an interview is completely recorded in an Examiners Amendment, no separate Interview Summary Record is required.

The Interview Summary Form shall be given an appropriate Paper No., placed in the right hand portion of the file, and listed on the "Contents" section of the file wrapper. In a personal interview, a duplicate of the Form is given to the applicant (or attorney or agent) at the conclusion of the interview. In the case of a telephone or video-conference interview, the copy is mailed to the applicant's correspondence address either with or prior to the next official communication. If additional correspondence from the examiner is not likely before an allowance or if other circumstances dictate, the Form should be mailed promptly after the interview rather than with the next official communication.

The Form provides for recordation of the following information:

- Application Number (Series Code and Serial Number)
- Name of applicant
- Name of examiner
- Date of interview
- Type of interview (telephonic, video-conference, or personal)
- Name of participant(s) (applicant, attorney or agent, examiner, other PTO personnel, etc.)
- An indication whether or not an exhibit was shown or a demonstration conducted
- An identification of the specific prior art discussed
- An indication whether an agreement was reached and if so, a description of the general nature of the agreement (may be by attachment of a copy of amendments or claims agreed as being allowable). Note: Agreement as to allowability is tentative and does not restrict further action by the examiner to the contrary.
- The signature of the examiner who conducted the interview (if Form is not an attachment to a signed Office action)

It is desirable that the examiner orally remind the applicant of his or her obligation to record the substance of the interview of each case. It should be noted, however, that the Interview Summary Form will not normally be considered a complete and proper recordation of the interview unless it includes, or is supplemented by the applicant or the examiner to include, all of the applicable items required below concerning the substance of the interview.

A complete and proper recordation of the substance of any interview should include at least the following applicable items:

- 1) A brief description of the nature of any exhibit shown or any demonstration conducted,
- 2) an identification of the claims discussed,
- 3) an identification of the specific prior art discussed,
- 4) an identification of the principal proposed amendments of a substantive nature discussed, unless these are already described on the Interview Summary Form completed by the Examiner,
- 5) a brief identification of the general thrust of the principal arguments presented to the examiner,
(The identification of arguments need not be lengthy or elaborate. A verbatim or highly detailed description of the arguments is not required. The identification of the arguments is sufficient if the general nature or thrust of the principal arguments made to the examiner can be understood in the context of the application file. Of course, the applicant may desire to emphasize and fully describe those arguments which he or she feels were or might be persuasive to the examiner.)
- 6) a general indication of any other pertinent matters discussed, and
- 7) if appropriate, the general results or outcome of the interview unless already described in the Interview Summary Form completed by the examiner.

Examiners are expected to carefully review the applicant's record of the substance of an interview. If the record is not complete and accurate, the examiner will give the applicant an extendable one month time period to correct the record.

Examiner to Check for Accuracy

If the claims are allowable for other reasons of record, the examiner should send a letter setting forth the examiner's version of the statement attributed to him or her. If the record is complete and accurate, the examiner should place the indication, "Interview Record OK" on the paper recording the substance of the interview along with the date and the examiner's initials.

DETAILED ACTION

Response To Election With Traverse

1. In response to the applicant's election with traverse of claims 18-20 in Paper no. 4 is acknowledged. The traversal is on the ground(s) because the claims 18-20 and newly added claims 23-30 are drawn to a hollow core door. This is not found persuasive because claims are drawn in door skin and hollow core door apparatus which classified in class 52, subclass 784.1 is distinct from the other because of the process of making; which's required different search for apparatus and method in different classes. The requirement is still deemed proper and is therefore made FINAL.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

2. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

3. Claims 18-20, 23-30 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Thorn (US 4,550,540).

In regards to claim 18, Thorn teaches compression molded door assembly comprising a door frame 23, first, second molded door panel or skins 21, 22 are attached to the door frame 23 so as to define a hollow core area there between. Thorn does not teach expressly the molded skin door has bond strength of at least about 2.0N/mm². It would have been obvious to one having ordinary skill in the art at the time of the invention was made to have the specifically range of 2.0N/mm² for the bonding strength, since it has been held that discovering an optimum value of a result effective variable involves only routine skill in the art. In re Boesch, 617 F. 2d 272, 205 USPQ 215 (CCPA 1980). The motivation for doing so would have been to provide enough strength for the bonding molded door panels without fall apart when in use.

With regard to claim 19, Thorn teaches the structural elements for the molded door skins except for a bond strength of at least about 2.5N/mm². (See rejection above).

With regards to claim 20, Thorn further teaches each of the skins 21, 22 is compression molded sheet molding compound (SMC) panel, which includes 15-40% fibrous glass reinforcement, 10-40% inert filler mineral filler, by weight, in the molding resin, unsaturated polyester polymers blended with vinyl monomer such as styrene are molding resins that may be cured under heat and pressure to form the thermoset compression molded skins (col. 2, lines 35-50). Thorn does not teach expressly the molded door skin formed by pressing a loose bat or mat into a flat door blank having a density of at least about 550kg/m³ or constant density. It would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art at the time of the invention was made to have the specific density for the door skins of at least about 550kg/m³, since it has been held that discovering an optimum value of a result effective variable involves only routine skill in the art. The motivation for doing so would have been to provide more accurate control of the bonding strength. Furthermore, the method of forming the door skin, specifically, pressing a loose bat or mat into a flat door blank, moisturizing, heating, and reforming in a press is not germane to the issue of patentability of the device itself. Therefore, this limitation has not been given patentable weight.

Art Unit: 3635

With regards to claims 23, 24, 29, 30, Thorn teaches the outer skin layer may be stained with a wood stain or with topcoat, such as a clear urethane or acrylic top coat thus give the skins moisture impervious barrier and a pleasing appearance (col. 3, lines 60-65).

With regards to claims 25-28, Thorn teaches each of the skins 21, 22 having inner side 28, a random texture 29, outer side 26 having contoured portion (figs. 1-6) includes an integral angled offset portion having different thickness.

Conclusion

4. The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure. Persson (US 4,844,968), Green (US 5,074,087), Walter (US 4,684,489), Favot (US 4,606,388), Aufderhaar (US 5,219,634) teach molded door panels.
